MR. AND MRS. HENRY S. RIECKE

ARTHUR L. CONRAD,

president of the National Institute of Professional Services and of the Heritage Foundation, Inc., will speak at a dinner meeting of the Knife and Fork Club of New Orleans to be held at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Roosevelt hotel. His subject will be: "Are We Educating or Indoctrinating Our Children?"

RIECKES REPEAT VOWS ON MONDAY

42 Descendants to Be at Mass on Golden Jubilee

Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Riecke, 6404 Argonne, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Monday with a high mass at 11 a. m. at St. Dominic's church, 224 Harrison, and a reception from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m. at 7515 St. Charles.

The Very Rev. Eugene M. Cuddy, pastor of St. Dominic's, will officiate at the church service, at which the couple will renew the marriage vows taken 50 years ago at St. Joseph's church, 1802 Tulane.

Plans to attend the anniversary services are being made by seven children, 33 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The children include Mrs. Melvin Ehlious, of Alberta, Canada, who will soon leave for Tokyo to join her husband, Col. Ehlious; Mrs. Louis DeMontluzin, Mrs. George Gurnon and four sons, Louis, Roy, Henry and Earl, all of New Orleans.

Mr. Riecke is founder of the Reicke Cabinet Works, 4021 Tulane, which he started about a month after he was married. His four sons now operate the business, although Mr. Riecke, now 71, still keeps an active interest in the company's activities.
